

Our Junior Lego Club has really taken off in the library! We have some wonderful students using their mathematical & engineering skills! Lots of problem solving through trial and error. Some wonderful discussions and most importantly...proud happy faces showing off their creations. Ms Micallef

